According to a recent NerdWallet survey conducted online in November 2022 by The Harris Poll among over 2,000 U.S. adults, 75% of Americans do not feel confident about their personal finances going into 2023. Moreover, 70% of Americans do not know where to find reputable information when they have questions about financial products and topics. This underscores the importance of NerdWallet's Best-Of Awards, which offer clear and reliable guidance to help consumers make smart financial decisions going into the new year.

"Over the past year, our team of trusted journalists have spent countless hours reviewing and assessing a wide range of financial products and services to select this year's Best-Of Awards winners," said Hanah Cho, Vice President of Content at NerdWallet. "Now more than ever, consumers are looking for solutions to help them navigate today's macroeconomic environment, and we believe that these awards will give them the necessary tools and guidance to help find the best financial solutions to meet their needs."
